

Hello

We're excited about your visit, and hope the tips in here help
you have a really enjoyable time.

I can wear headphones and bring fidget toys.

I can only take a water bottle with me into the venues.

I can buy food and drink in the foyer before or after the talk, using a credit or debit card but not cash.

A small bag is OK to bring into the venues. Any bag larger than an A4 piece of paper can be cloaked at the cloakroom.

Welcome to the
Sydney Opera House

1

I will walk across a large open space to the building

2

The entry to all venues, except
the Yallamundi Rooms, is underneath the steps

3

Staff will be able to assist me if I need help

Welcome Team
staff wear orange
shirts

4

Security staff
wear blue
uniforms

5

Front of House
staff wear blue
and beige

6

I will see a queue
under the steps

7

I will walk through an electronic gate

8

Staff may do a bag inspection
Security do these checks to keep
everyone safe

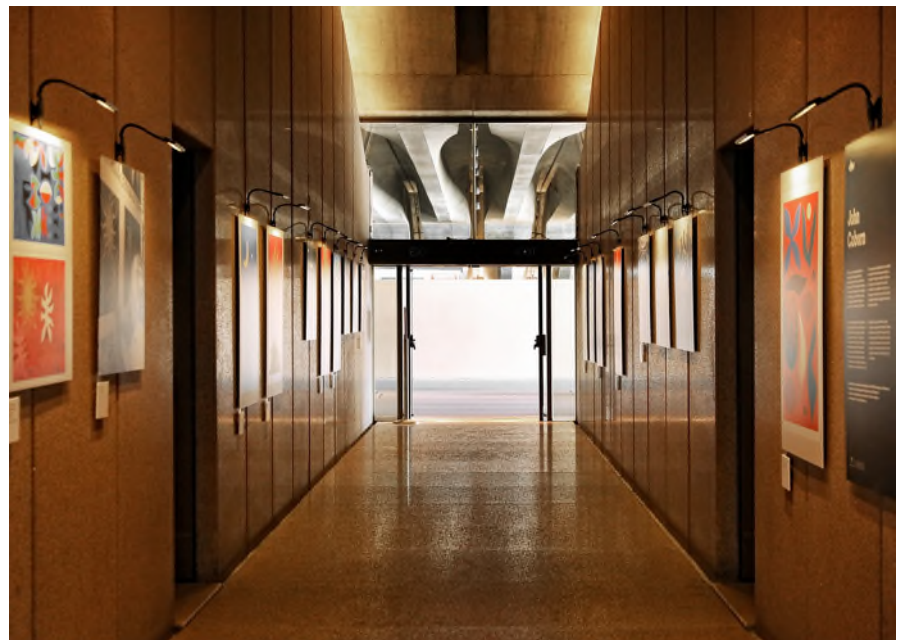

6

I will enter the foyer doors at the end of the queue

7

I will walk down
the corridor

8

On the right is the entry to the Quiet
Space, the door
will be open and there will be a welcoming sign

6

There are bathrooms next to
the Quiet Space

7

Opposite the Quiet Space is a lift that travels to Level 1 and entry
to the Concert
Hall and Utzon
Room

8

I can keep walking into the Western Foyer to find a café, the Drama Theatre,
Studio and Centre
for Creativity

A Box Office and Cloakroom are available if I need to pick up tickets or cloak a large bag

Outside the entry
to the Drama
Theatre there will be an All About Women lounge
with free activities

I can visit a bookstore in the Western Foyer and in the Concert Hall Foyer

7

If I have a Yallamundi Rooms session, I go back outside and follow around the side of the Sydney Opera House

8

At the back of the Sydney Opera House, I will see the entry to the Yallamundi Rooms

Thanks for coming to see us, we hope
you have a good time.
