

Hello

We're excited about your visit,
and hope the tips in here help
you have a really enjoyable time.

I can wear headphones and bring fidget toys.

I can buy food and drink in the foyer before or after the show, using a credit or debit card but not cash.

I can only take a water bottle with me into the theatre.

A small bag is OK to bring into the theatre. Any bag larger than an A4 piece of paper can be cloaked at the cloakroom.

1

When I arrive at the Sydney Opera House, I will head toward the bottom of the staircase.

Head toward the star on the above image.

2

The entry to all venues is underneath the steps.

3

When I arrive, I may see a line of people. I will join the back of the line.

4

Staff will be able to assist me if I need help.

Welcome team staff wear orange shirts. Security wear blue uniforms.

5

Follow the queue line.

You will step through an electronic gate.

6

Staff may do a bag inspection.

Security do these checks to keep everyone safe.

7

Lift, Theatres, Bennelong Restaurant

At the end of the queue turn left and enter the Western Foyer doors in front of you.

You can see these doors from the queue line.

8

When I enter the Western Foyer there are toilets to my right.

There are automatic hand dryers which make noise.

9

The Playhouse Theatre is the closest theatre to the entry.

PLAYHOUSE

The theatre doors will be open
20 minutes before the show.

You will hear bells when it is time to enter.

11

I will get my ticket ready and join the back of the queue.

The Sydney Opera House staff will scan my ticket. They wear a blue uniform.

12

I will find my seat row and number.

This information can be found on my ticket.

13

The theatre space will be a bit darker than the foyer.

I will walk toward the row and seat that I have booked.

14

Before Josh comes on stage, I will hear music and see the lights go down in the audience.

I might hear loud cheering and clapping when Josh walks on stage.

15

The stage lights change during the show. The lights might sweep across the audience.

Music will interrupt some of the stories Josh will tell.

16

I will see and hear confetti fall during the show.

Thanks for coming to see us, we hope
you have a good time.
