

Open House Weekend

Welcome

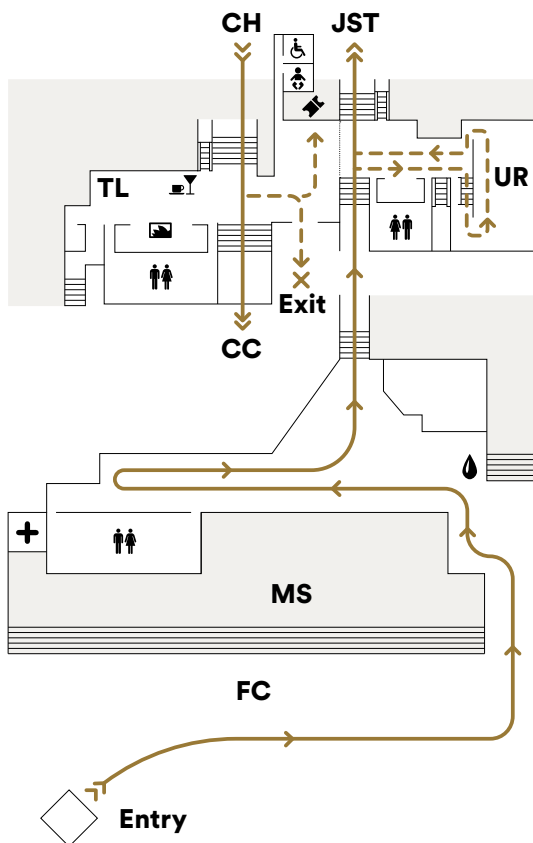

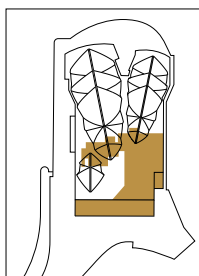

We first opened our doors in 1973, and as we celebrate our 50th birthday, we can't wait to show you around. As you make your way under the sails, we are delighted to tell the Sydney Opera House story – the building, our heritage, the performances, the experiences, how we're inspiring positive change, our goals for the future, and most of all the community. We welcome you to 'Everyone's House'.

Foyer

Did you know?

The Monumental Steps are nearly 100 metres wide and inspired by the Mayan temples of Mexico. Jørn Utzon, the architect behind the Opera House, wanted to take people into something otherworldly.

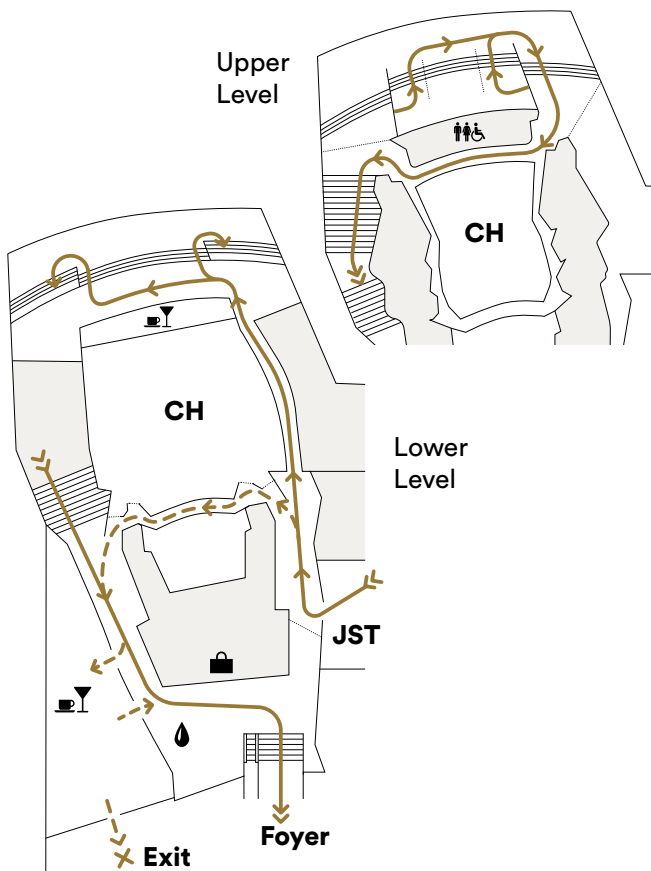

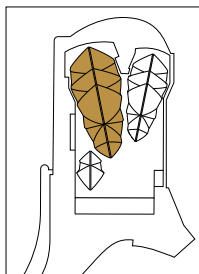

Joan Sutherland Theatre

Did you know?

There is art on and off the stage including paintings, murals and tapestries. John Coburn's Curtain of the Sun tapestry is making a rare special appearance this weekend in this theatre.

Concert Hall

Did you know?

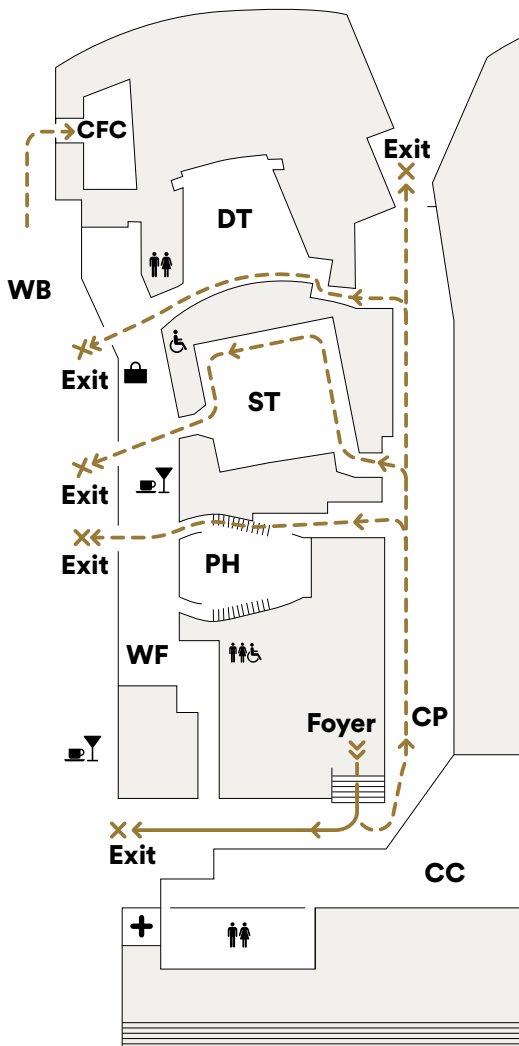

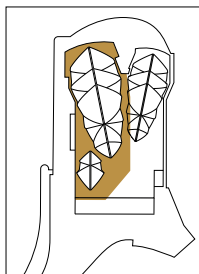

In 50 years, nearly 63 million seats have been filled, at more than 118,000 performances, with close to 16 million people having taken paid tours of the Opera House.
